“ Leanne... You are such a gift! For me... And my family, you gave your heart and helped us to grow stronger-to love with all-to cry and scream with the cheer moms(who would've thunk??), and to live from our heart. I will carry you and your gifts on my shoulder always. My Mason will forever be changed for the better because of your love. I am so grateful for the time we shared . Peace my friend

“ My prayers goes out to Darrell and his daughter for the loss of a wife and mother. I knew of Leanne, through Darrell, from the Nashville Metro Fire Department.

My heart breaks for you two and all of her family. I know the pain in loosing someone so close and how much you will miss her. She is no longer in any pain and she Cancer free now.

God received a new angle and he for sure got a beautiful one. My thoughts will be with you all in the coming days during your time of sorrow. May Leanne, R.I.P. she will always be with you in your heart. God Bless each and everyone of you.

Be our strength at this time, that we might yet see the truth of the world as You created it. That there is no death, that Leanne still lives, and in You, we still live with her.

I know they had a parade for you in heaven when you arrived

“ We were put in each others path as we were traveling the same journey. I never could imagine how much we would lean on each other. We shared emotions, cheered for one another, cried for one another or just listened to the other. Never in my wildest dreams did I think such a beautiful angel would be in my life. I thank God for having the opportunity to have Leanne for the time I did. She was amazing with her optimism and the way she never gave up. She had the most infectious smile that could brighten the whole room. I have learned so many lessons from her and I just pray that I can be half the christian, friend, wife, mother, and daughter she was.

Cancer brought us into each others lives, but love and friendship kept us there. You will always be in my heart my "soul sister"

Love you forever,
Kirsten

“ Won't ever forget sitting in front of you and your family at church. We spoke a little but didn't really know each other. Then one Sunday I saw you crying and asked what was wrong. That's when you found out you had breast cancer. God must've known we'd need each other because just a couple of years before I'd gone through it myself. We were instantly able to connect but on a different level. I've been beyond blessed to have known you. Missing you terribly but I'll see you again one day with that beautiful smile!

“ My heart hurts for the loss of such a beautiful soul. Not one time during all of her battles did I hear her complain she just took it all and never gave up. I have some memories with her but my favorite makes me smile every time I would like to share it and it also shows that she always thought of others. They were having a yard sale and she was not feeling very good but she still had her smile she said Lisa come over here and sit with me so I did she talked and talked and talked then she said I am talking your ear off I am sorry it is the medicine.....I told her it was ok then the next day she sent me a message and said she was sorry again for talking my ear off ... I sure wish I could hear her one more time.....To all the family I am truly sorrybut she touched so many people and her spirit lives on

“ Thank you for being such a good friend of my daughter Donna's. She too has gone through breast cancer. She was one of the lucky ones. You were also a friend and cheerleader of my youngest daughter Sandy. This is where I became to love this beautiful young woman. Leanne I can only ask God to give me the courage and strength that you had. I will keep that beautiful smile with me forever. Go rest now in the arms of our Lord. There you will be forever free from pain and enjoy all his blessings. love you Leanne.
