

Trish Sanders

March 6, 1949 - October 21, 2019

Patricia Shearron, known to most of us as Trish Sanders, was born on March 6, 1949 and died peacefully at her home on October 21, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents Buddy and Mishie Shearron. She was the "Sweetheart" wife of Charles Corbett, "Mom and Mum" to Bess and Alex McLean, "Nana" to Lilly Viau and Charles' granddaughter Chancey Qualls, "friend" to her sister Hope Bragg, and one of Bill Bragg's "favorite" aunts. She also had many, many family and friends whom she loved.

Trish cared passionately for her family, friends, and community. She touched the lives of many children and families through her years as a school teacher and a certified licensed therapist. She worked tirelessly for the Cheatham County Community Enhancement Coalition.

A celebration of life will be Friday, November 1, 2019, at 3pm in the Ashland City United Methodist Church with a visitation in the Fellowship Hall from 1pm to 3pm.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Trish's memory may be made to Cheatham County FUEL or Alive Hospice.

“ Trisha was very special to us. We used to take turns carpooling our children to Pleasant View Christian School. We very much loved her mother and father, and her sister, Hope. She was a wonderful, person that will always be remembered fondly.

“ Just heard of this.

A lovely woman, and an awesome teacher. I had the joy of having her as my homeroom teacher in the 7th grade, and again as my English II teacher in high school. Yes, she was the first of only two teachers to ever paddle me, and yes, I probably deserved it!

Trish gave me an early love of the English language, literature, and writing. It is a shame we don't always express our thanks, appreciation, and love when young.

Blessings to her family.

“ I received the gift of getting to know Trish as my therapist. Trish was tough on me when needed and then gave me a hug when I needed it too. She allowed me to learn about myself and I often wished I had known her outside of the office setting. My condolences to her family and friends on the loss of a great lady.

“ I have fond memories of Trish coming out West to visit. I will always cherish the special day that she and I spent together. I think of her every time that I wear the special turquoise earrings that she brought me from Santa Fe, NM. She was an Inspiration to me during a difficult time in my life when I needed encouragement. I will miss her immensely.

“ Trish was my therapist for years and changed my life. I've often thought over the years that I should send her a picture of my beautiful children and life and let her know she made it possible. I can only hope she knows. My sincerest condolences to her loved one. My heart is with you.

“ Another miracle and miracle-worker joins God's cloud of witnesses. Trish walked with me through sicknesses, broken and repaired relationships, a Bachelors Degree and Vanderbilt Divinity MDIV, commissioning and United Methodist's ordination. I love you Trish. Thank you for sharing your healing powers with me.
