“ Cynthia, Susan, Laverne so very to hear of Billy Joe's passing. We were in school together from the 5th grade thru graduation from Bledsoe County High School. After school we went in different directions but would seem him occasionally when he would visit his parents or his uncle Sam Farmer. He was an exceptional person and will truly be missed. Deepest sympathy to you and your families. J. Buford Sullivan

“ Our prayers and love to the Gideon family from all of us here in the Holt house. I would always get tickled when he came into the pool store to buy chemicals and other stuff. He would say the Cindy sent him down here. Good man with a good heart.

“ When Billy was here for Clarence’s funeral, I couldn’t find him. I finally found him in the back bedroom eating a McDonalds hamburger. I scared him so bad and he made me promise not to tell Cindy. We had a good laugh. Billy will be missed and just know our thoughts and prayers are with you. We love you Brenda and David Lee
